MANUAL OF REQUIREMENTS FOR ADOPTION AGENCIES

EFFECTIVE DATE: March 17, 2003.
EXPIRATION DATE: March 17, 2008.

SUBCHAPTER 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

10:121A-1.1 Scope

This chapter constitutes comprehensive rules governing the certification of adoption agencies pursuant to the State Adoption Law (N.J.S.A. 9:3-37 et seq.).

10:121A-1.2 Purpose

(a) The purpose of this chapter is to prevent the exploitation and to protect the health and well-being of children being served by adoption agencies, as well as to protect the legal rights of children and birth and adoptive parents by establishing standards of agency organization and administration, professional training, experience, practices and requirements relating to the responsibility of agencies providing adoption services in New Jersey.

(b) This chapter constitutes minimum baseline requirements to ensure that the basic programmatic and administrative needs of adoption agencies and the social service needs of the families and children they serve are met. Compliance with this chapter is necessary if an adoption agency is to open or operate, and no adoption agency is permitted to operate below the level of requirements specified in this chapter. This chapter is in no way intended to prohibit or prevent adoption agencies from going beyond the minimum requirements contained in these rules. The decision whether to exceed these requirements rests with each agency.

The Bureau of Licensing of the New Jersey Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS), Department of Human Services, shall be responsible for implementing and enforcing this chapter. (b) Under the State Adoption Law, all private and public adoption agencies, both within New Jersey and outside the State that are involved in the placement of children for adoption in New Jersey, must be certified by the New Jersey Department of Human Services in order to open and operate.

(c) In order to be eligible for a certificate of approval, an adoption agency shall demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Department of Human Services or its duly authorized agent, the Bureau of Licensing of the Division of Youth and Family Services, compliance with the requirements of the State Adoption Law and with the rules contained in this chapter, which constitute minimum requirements only.

(d) These rules shall not be applicable to the adoption of adults.

10:121A-1.5 Definition and types of adoptions

(a) "Adoption" means the legal transfer of all parental rights and responsibilities from the birth and/or legal parent(s) to another person who desires to assume those rights and responsibilities.

(b) Adoptions that are subject to the provisions of this manual are classified as follows:

1. "Agency adoption" is an adoption where the birth parent(s) and the adoptive parent(s) come to an agency independent of each other and there is no prior relationship for the purpose of adoption;

2. "Foreign adoption" is the adoption of a child who resides in a country other than the United States of America. An agency shall comply with the requirements of the Federal Immigration and Naturalization Act (P.L. 95- 417), and any successor or amending legislation regarding the classification of an alien orphan child as an immediate relative for purposes of an immigration visa;

3. "Identified adoption" is an adoption where the agency becomes involved in providing services to a birth parent(s) or legal parent(s) and/or a prospective adoptive parent(s) who is considering a plan to place the child for adoption in the prospective adoptive parent's home;

Subsequent to the placement, the court orders an agency to conduct an Adoption Complaint Investigation (ACI) in order to investigate the circumstances of the placement and to assess the adoptive home;

5. "Stepparent adoption" is an adoption of a child from a former marriage by the birth parent's current husband or wife; and

(f) The certificate of approval shall be issued to a particular adoption agency at a particular location and shall not be transferable.

(g) The agency shall display the certificate at all times in a location of prominence within the agency.

(h) No adoption agency shall make claims either in advertising or in any written or verbal announcement or presentation contrary to its certification status.

- (e) The Bureau may impose conditions upon an agency's adoption services, and shall provide notice if an agency's certification will contain such conditions.
- (f) Each certificate issued by the Bureau to an adoption agency remains the property of the State of New Jersey. If an agency's certificate is suspended or revoked, or upon the permanent closing of the agency, the agency shall return the certificate to the Bureau immediately.
